BURGLARS BUSY

Tap Crenshaw & Young for 5 in 31 Fountain Pens and Pipes.

Some time last Saturday night or Sunday morning nocturnal prowlers paid a visit to the new store of Crenshaw & Young and made away with a case of fountain pens valued at $90.00 and about five dollars worth of chewing gum and post cards.

The thief or thieves gained access through the rear door. There was no glass in this door and wooden boards were nailed over the opening. The lower board was pried up and the door unlocked from the inside. Whoever committed the depredation evidently had a knowledge of the interior of the store and a definite idea of what he wanted.

No arrests have as yet been made, though the officers are working on several clues.

Death of Mrs. Martha Barnett.

Mrs. Martha Barnett died Saturday morning at 10:15 at her home on Washington avenue. She was eighty-two years of age and death was due to general debility. Her acute illness, however, was of only three weeks' duration.

Mrs. Barnett was a member of one of the most prominent families in this part of the state and had relatives throughout Lafayette county. She was formerly Miss Martha Young and spent her entire life in this vicinity. From childhood she was an active worker in the Prairie Presbyterian church. Her beautiful Christian character, her unselfishness, her tenderness made her loved and cherished by all who knew her.

Since the death of her husband, the late Camillus Barnett, she and her daughter, Miss Carrie, have kept house together.

Three sons—Robert Barnett and Sam Barnett of this county and Ed Barnett of Tacoma, Washington—and four daughters—Mrs. Ben Higgins, Mrs. W. H. Waddell, Mrs. C. L. Glasscock and Miss Carrie Barnett—are left to mourn her loss. The funeral services were held from the residence Sunday afternoon. Burial was in Macphelah.

M. C. McFaddin was in Kansas City Sunday.

F. R. Davis spent Sunday in Kansas City.

L. W. Marshall was in Kansas City Tuesday.

Presbyterian Meeting Closed.

The revival meetings which have been going on at the Presbyterian church during the past two weeks were brought to a close Monday evening and Rev. Abbott of Marshall who conducted the services left Tuesday for his home. During the special meetings there were twelve conversions, nearly all from the Sunday school, and there was a general awakening of interest on the part of the entire congregation. Mr. Abbott's sermons were strong appeals told in direct simplicity, all tending to raise those who heard to a higher plane of living.

During his stay here Mr. Abbott formed many warm friendships and gained the high esteem of the local congregation.

Nearly everybody knows DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills made. They are small, pleasant, sure Little Liver pills. Sold by Crenshaw & Young.
